Jib Alignment and Movement Observation

Blank record. Do not reproduce an unsafe event or treat unmeasured values as zero.

Machine / serial / support / tool / applicable instruction reference

Location: column or base / boom / joint / working end; identify precisely

Observed state: unloaded or previously authorized loaded task; load identity

Movement or alignment observation; reference surface / direction / method

Available measured value and unit, or explicitly unknown

When first observed; collision, relocation, service or tool changes

Safe overview / interface / joint photographs and attachment references

Current safe status; responsible person; out-of-service action

Technical assessment: cause, construction-specific correction and authority

Closure: prescribed verification, decision, responsible person and date

Use the applicable equipment instructions and agreed criteria.

© Easytech | www.auto-easy.com | 2026-10-20